

CAMELOT PARK

Kentville, N.S.

ORIENTEERING MAP

SCALE 1:10 000

CONTOUR INTERVAL 3 METRES

Legend

FIELDWORK: Robin Keirstead
 Scott Bullerwell
 REDRAWING: Scott Bullerwell
 Bob Kaill
 PRINTED BY Metrographic Printing Services Ltd.

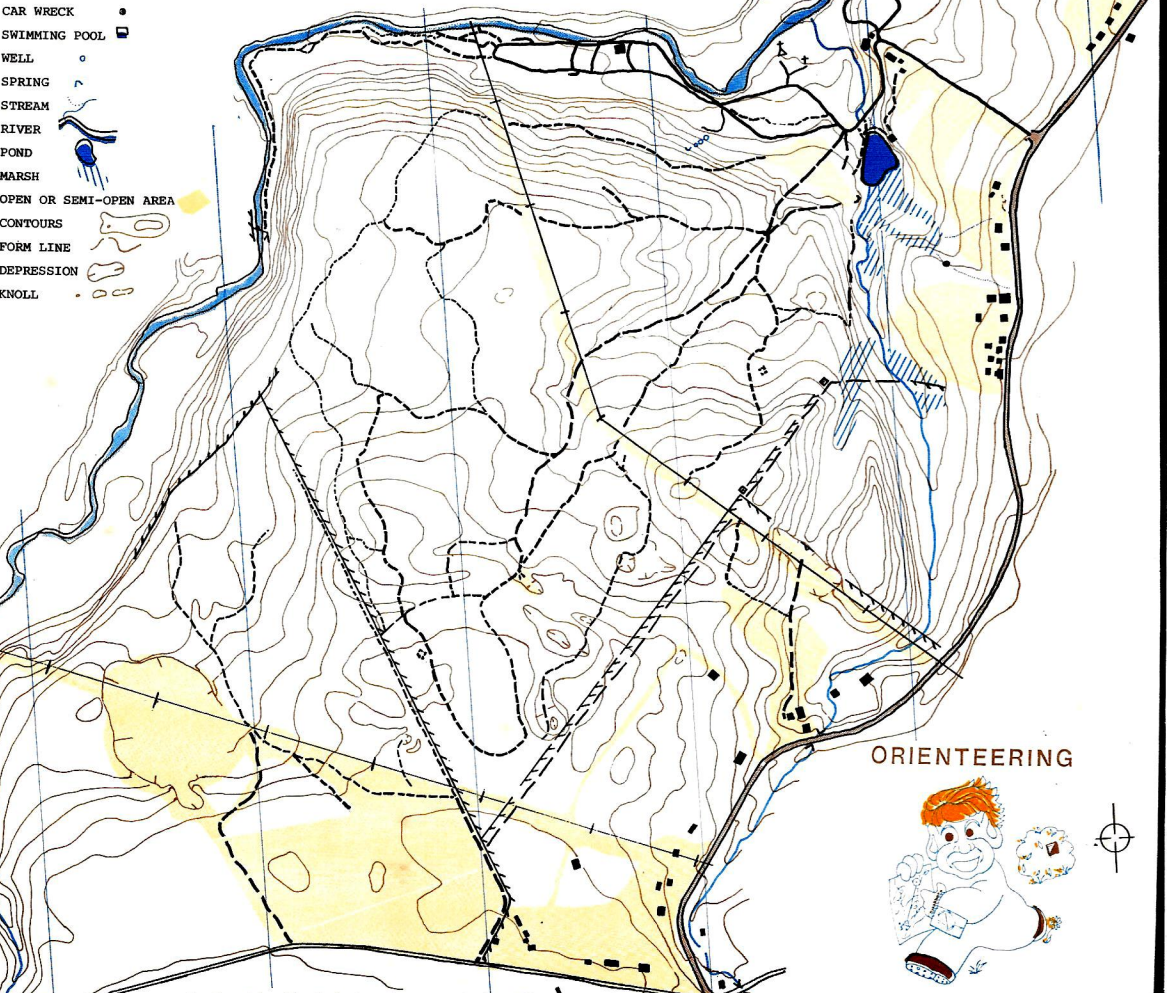

- PAVED ROAD
- GRAVEL ROAD
- DIRT ROAD
- LARGE TRAIL OR CART TRACK
- SMALL TRAIL
- SMALL INDISTINCT TRAIL
- RIDE (CUT LINE)
- FENCE
- POWER LINE
- BUILDINGS
- RUIN
- GRAVE
- CHAPEL
- CEMENT MONUMENT
- CAR WRECK
- SWIMMING POOL
- WELL
- SPRING
- STREAM
- RIVER
- POND
- MARSH
- OPEN OR SEMI-OPEN AREA
- CONTOURS
- FORM LINE
- DEPRESSION
- KNOLL

ORIENTEERING is made up of a variety of navigational techniques which are combined for use in games or contests where the intelligent use of map and compass will lead to the desired result. It can be a casual stroll through a variety of terrain and environments or a highly competitive contest involving the quick and effective interpretation of a map and use of a compass to find a series of control points using what the competitor considers to be the best route between the points.

FOR INFORMATION CONTACT:

ANNAPOLIS VALLEY ORIENTEERING CLUB
 Jim Blanchard
 21 Oakdene Ave.
 Kentville, N.S.
 B4N 2B6
 678-3323

O.A.N.S.
 P.O. Box 3010 South
 Halifax, N.S.
 B3J 3G6
 425-5450

ORIENTEERING

Produced by the Orienteering Association of Nova Scotia.
 Partially funded by a Young Canada Works Grant and the Nova Scotia Department of Recreation.

THE WILDERNESS SPORT